

ITG's Triton(R) Named Buy Side Trading System of the Year

April 7, 2011

New York, U.S.A., Apr 07, 2011 (Thomson Reuters ONE via COMTEX) --

HONG KONG, April 7, 2011 - Investment Technology Group, Inc. (NYSE: ITG), a leading agency research broker and financial technology firm, today announced that its Triton Execution Management System was named Buy Side Trading System of the Year in The 2011 Asian Banker Market and Exchanges Awards.

"We're delighted to win the Asian Banker Award for Best Buyside Trading Platform for the second year in a row. This reflects the commitment we've made to building the best trading technology for the Asia Pacific markets and providing our clients with the support they need to manage their single stock and portfolio trading across the region," said David Stevens, CEO of ITG in Asia Pacific. "Connecting over 80 brokers and 600 separate trading destinations in Asia Pacific, as well as hundreds of brokers globally, Triton is now the buyside trading system of choice both for fund managers based in Asia and also those trading into Asia from North America and Europe. "

The Asian Banker Markets and Exchanges Awards recognize the achievements and emerging best practices in the capital markets industry across Asia Pacific. The awards recognize institutions that demonstrate a sustainable long-term strategy based on healthy financials, sound infrastructure and robust business processes.
